

FOCO ONE 1000

BIO-30-129

Foco One 1000 is an elegant one-sided bioethanol fireplace designed for in-wall installation where the flames are only visible from the front. This fireplace offers a stylish solution for creating a cosy atmosphere in your home. Choose between a manual or automatic burner that offers adjustable flame levels and remote control for easy operation. The fireplace is made of 4 mm powder-coated stainless steel and tempered glass is included to protect the flames and provide a stable flame experience.
