

SPITSBERGEN - CAST IRON BIOETHANOL STOVE

BIO-20-905

ScandiFlames Spitsberg is a freestanding bioethanol fireplace made of cast iron, featuring a manual bioethanol burner that can burn for up to 6 hours on a single refill. The fireplace offers a stunning view of the flames through the large double-door windows at the front, and the beautiful markings and carvings in the cast iron make it a striking centrepiece, even when it's not lit. The Spitsberg fireplace generates approximately 2.3 kW of heat and has a consumption of around 0.35 L/h, which can be adjusted using the included operation and adjustment tool. It also comes with a decorative top that can be removed for a more minimalist look. When the top is taken off, the flat plate
